The UC Davis Coastal and Marine Sciences Institute Invites you to

Pearls, Swine & Wine

Friday, February 15, 2019
5:30 p.m.
Mulvaney’s B&L | 1215 19th St. Sacramento, CA

Join us for an amazing dinner and conversation with some of California’s pioneers in the food and wine industry.
At Pearls, Swine & Wine, you’ll have the opportunity to meet and mingle with local food icons and hear how the UC Davis Coastal and Marine Sciences Institute is partnering with businesses to better understand the impacts of a changing climate on California’s agriculture, viticulture, and aquaculture.

From farm-to-fork and tide-to-table, we’re bringing together some of the most influential figures in the artisan food movement to tell their stories about the future of the food we eat and the wine we drink.

Tickets: $150

Register by February 8 at: pearlsswinewine.eventbrite.com
featured guests:

sue conley, co-founder, cowgirl creamery
randall grahm, founder, bonny doon vineyard patrick mulvaney, chef and owner, mulvaney’s b&l terry sawyer, co-founder, hog island oyster company rick grosberg, director, uc davis coastal and marine sciences institute gary cherr, director, uc davis bodega marine laboratory program:

5:30 - 6:15  oyster bar & cocktail reception
6:20 - 6:45  welcome & opening remarks
6:45 - 7:15  dinner served* (family style)
7:15 - 8:00  panel discussion

*vegetarian, dairy-free and gluten-free options available upon request
The Coastal and Marine Sciences Institute catalyzes research, education, and outreach programs in marine science and policy at the UC Davis campus and Bodega Marine Laboratory in Bodega Bay.

Learn more at: marinescience.ucdavis.edu